

Jacomijn van Haersolte-van Hof has been admitted to the Bar since 1992 (The Hague). In 2008, she set up her own law firm in The Hague, HaersolteHof B.V.

She was first admitted to the Rotterdam Bar, working with the law firm Loeff Claey's Verbeke, including in the maritime law department. During that time, she worked for the Claims Resolution for Dormant Accounts in Zürich. Subsequently, she joined De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek in The Hague, and thereafter Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in Amsterdam as counsel in the International Arbitration Group. Before she was admitted to the Bar, she worked as Legal Secretary to the U.S./U.K. Heathrow Tribunal.

Degrees:

Rijksuniversiteit Leiden (Master of Laws 1986; PhD 1992, thesis entitled: The UNCITRAL Rules, The Practice of the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal)

Experience:

counsel and arbitrator in international and national arbitrations and court litigation, involving:

- Energy law (including gas price review disputes)
- Sales and general contract law
- International law (investment law; immunity law), advising and representing investors and states
- Shipbuilding
- Commodities
- Maritime and aviation (including charter disputes; aircraft construction; engine leases; and joint ventures in the aviation industry)
- Post-M&A disputes
- Injunctions/ Attachment
- Setting aside and enforcement proceedings
- ICC; LCIA; UNCITRAL; NAI: ICSID; grain and ad hoc arbitrations
- Assisting parties in mediation.

Other activities:

- Member Advisory Board Netherlands Arbitration Institute
- Lecturer in International Arbitration Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam
- Appointed by the European Commission as expert advising on arbitration in the context of the Brussels regulation
- Dutch Member of Panel of ICSID Arbitrators
- Various guest lectures and teaching commitments

- Lecturer Arbitrators' Course Netherlands Arbitration Institute
- Lecturer arbitration The Law Firm School
- Lecturer arbitration In house Lawyer Association
- Member Arbitration Committee ILA
- Editorial Board Global Arbitration Review

Selected publications:

- The Commission's Proposal to amend the arbitration exception should be embraced!, NIPR 2011 280
- UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, in Mistelis, Concise International Arbitration (Kluwer, 2010)
- Investeringsarbitrage: wie, wat, waar en waarom? Ondernemingsrecht & Effectenrecht 2010-1
- Anti-suit injunctions – weg ermee! Arbitrage-exceptie – weg ermee!, Nederlands Tijdschrift voor Europees recht, June 2009
- The relationship between International Tribunals and Domestic Courts (with A. Hoffmann), in The Oxford Handbook of International Investment Law, Oxford University Press 2008
- Arbitrage zonder (contractuele) grenzen: heden en toekomst van investeringsarbitrage (with Brian King), in Tijdschrift voor Arbitrage (2005)
- Interim Measures of Protection – A European and International Perspective, in ICCA Congress series no. 11
- Innovations in Mass Claims Dispute Resolution: Using New Standards of Proof, Dispute Resolution Journal (2003)
- Consolidation Under the English Arbitration Act 1996: A View from The Netherlands, Arbitration International (1997)
- Commentary on the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules – The Application by the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal (Kluwer, 1992)

Dr. J.J. van Haersolte-van Hof
 HaersolteHof B.V.
 Delistraat 27
 2585 VX The Hague
 The Netherlands

T: +31 70 2040 120
 F: +31 70 2040 121
 M: + 31 6 2184 4878

